Democratic State Convention

At Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27 and 28, A. D. 1889.

HEADQUARTERS

DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE,

COLUMBUS, OHIO, JULY 18, 1889.

The Democrats of Ohio are hereby notified to meet in delegate convention, at Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27 and 28, 1889, to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Treasurer, Attorney General, Member of Board of Public Works, Clerk of Supreme Court and State Commissioner of Common Schools.

On Tuesday evening, August 27, at 8 o'clock, the delegates from each Congressional District will meet and select a Vice-President and Assistant Secretary and one member of each of the several committees. The convention will meet on Wednesday, August 28, at 10 o'clock a. m. The basis of representation will be one delegate for every 500 votes and one for every fraction of 250 votes and over, cast for Grover Cleveland for President in 1888.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee.

JAMES A. NORTON, Chairman.

JOSEPH F. WALL, Secretary.
Under the above appointment the several counties of Northwestern Ohio will be entitled to the following vote:

"If GOVERNOR FORAKER SHOULD BE A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION FOR GOVERNOR, OR IF HE SHOULD NAME THE CANDIDATE, WHETHER IT BE BOYDRELL OR ANYBODY ELSE, HIS THREAT WOULD BE CUT FROM EAR TO EAR.
THIS PAPER HAS NO CANDIDATE, BUT WE KNOW ENOUGH TO KNOW WHAT WE ARE TALKING ABOUT."—Toledo Commercial, Rep.

"THE RULE UPON WHICH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE FINALLY SETTLED IS THAT TWO TERMS IN SUCCESSION SHALL BE THE LIMIT IN AN EXECUTIVE OFFICE LIKE THAT OF PRESIDENT OR GOVERNOR."—Gen. JOHN BEATTY.

"ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE THE FACTS AS MUCH AS WE MAY, IT IS TRUTH THAT IN EVERY SECTION OF THIS STATE AND AMONG ALL CLASSES OF REPUBLICANS THERE ARE GOOD MEN WHO ARE,
FROM CONVICTION, OPPOSED TO THE PRINCIPLE OF A THIRD TERM, AND AT THIS TIME MANY OF THESE INSIST THAT AS THEY NOW SEE IT, THEY CANNOT AND WILL NOT VOTE AGAINST THEIR CONVICTIONS."—LIBERTY, Gov. LYONS.

Attention, Members of Demo- cratic Central Committee.

The Henry County Democratic Central Committee will meet in Napoleon, Ohio, on Saturday, August 17th, 1889, at 10 o'clock a. m. Let every member attend, as business of importance will be transacted.
JAMES P. RAGAN, Chairman.

"Home rule and low taxation" is the Democratic idea.

Tariff reform means protection to American industry.

The national debt was increased over a million dollars during July, and the Republican administration is busy explaining the whyfore.

Republican papers are mighty quiet about that big Republican steal by the Auditor and Treasurer of Warren county. Speak out, brethren. The stealings don't amount to more than $300,000.

Prof. Miller, of Ottawa, will be a candidate before the Democratic State Convention for nomination for State School Commissioner. Prof. Miller is spoken of as one of the best and most practical educators in the State.

The abolition of the sugar tax and the sugar trust with it would cut down family expenses in the United States at least $150,- 000,000 a year. The American market must not be kept closed against competition for the benefit of the extortioners.

Under two years of Governor Hoadly's administration the State debt was reduced $802,255.81, an average of $401,127.91 annually. Under three years of Foraker the reduction has been but $673,564.19, an average of $224,521.30. Here is a real test of financing as shown by the official records.

Well, a Republican office-holder does sometimes resign as a matter of principle.
Hugh Jones, of Perry county, who held a position in the State House under the Governor's appointment, resigned when Governor Foraker was nominated for a third term, and is organizing an opposition among his fellow Republicans.—Enquirer.

The Prohibitionists of this county met in county convention on Friday last, at the court house in Napoleon. The attendance was not bad, and both the old parties received a goodly share of the prohibition ire. The following ticket was placed in nomination: Representative, W. T. Chapman, Commissioner, J. C. Weible; Surveyor, Geo. Philpot; Recorder, Oscar Leatherman; Infirmary Director, O. H. Gilmore.

Two colored men of South Carolina, one the pastor of a colored church at Columbia, have invented a cotton-chopper which proves to be such a valuable invention that they have sold a share in it to two white men for $20,000. One of the inventors is said to have devised a self-pumping machine which is almost a perpetual motion machine. The contrivance is put in a well and pumps water from the time it is started until it is stopped.

A most disgraceful scene took place in the White House on Saturday last between the President, Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson and John S. Wise, the anti Mahoneite, of New York, but claiming to be of Virginia. Hard and vulgar words flew thick and fast, threats were made, and the whole occurrence was disgraceful in the extreme, especially for a President to indulge in. Oh, yes, there is harmony in the Republican camp—but it is spelled with a little h.

The Rev. Dr. Brobst, of Chicago, took trains for his text last Sunday, and here is a sentence of his discourse: "The organizers of trusts," said the reverend gentleman, "are sagacious thieves and remorseless highway robbers intrenched behind the certain technicalities where the law cannot reach them; relentless, blood-thirsty devil-fish, with their hideous tentacles clasped about helpless humanity, sucking the life-blood drop by drop." There is a vigorous bit of English for you.

The many friends of Mr. C. C. Miller, Superintendent of the Ottawa schools, will be gratified to learn that he has consented to be a candidate for State School Commissioner, and that the whole northwestern part of the State will support him at the State convention. Elsewhere in this issue of the Eagle will be found a number of complimentary notices of his candidacy. We can cheerfully indorse all that is said in these notices. We have known Mr. Miller personally for several years, and know him to be a man of sterling integrity, a polished gentleman, a ripe scholar and in every way qualified for the position for which he is named. He will make a popular candidate, and will add strength to the ticket.
Mr. Miller is a son of ex-Commissioner Enos S. Miller.—Ohio Eagle.

Foraker has posed for years as having been a terrible slayer of rebels in untold numbers of bloody battles. In view of this number of Democratic papers have taken it upon themselves to inquire the names of the battles in which Little Breeches participated, but neither the Governor nor any of his friends have yet been able to tell. The Cleveland Leader tries to make an answer by giving his war record, but it only details the date of his enlistment, promotions and discharge, without mentioning a single engagement in which he took part. At the only battles the brass monkey has fought in are those he has had with his own mouth, for which service Tanner, before he gets the grand bounce, will issue him a pension.

The Wauson Republican asserts that we are disconcerted to Republican papers.
Well, we suppose we are, if it means by Republican papers such journals as itself and the Tribune, against whose lying insinuations the Northwest is defending its county and its citizens. But why call it disconcerting?
Why not come right out in plain English and say we have knocked you silly? That you receive your information from a convicted criminal, and in order to make a political point take his crazy ravings in preference to the word of reputable citizens of both parties?
Let your readers understand this and you become the laughing stock of the neighborhood. To call your neighbor a thief, upon the authority of a low disreputable character, who is now in the clutches of the law, shows a weakness and lack of good common sense that is disreputable—even for Republican papers. Look well to your authority before you call your neighbor a thief! But do we mistake, when we bring to mind that it is just a few months ago that these two Republican papers of Wauson were throwing mud at each other, the Republican attributing all manner of rascality to the editor of the Tribune?
Talk about being disconcerted! Bah!

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A Candidate for No Office.

Individuals, seemingly to be friends of Mr.
Henry Rohrs, will have it that he is a candidate for some office, if not for Senator then for County Treasurer, and so on. Mr. Rohrs informs us that he is not a candidate for any office in the gift of the people, that his business relations would exclude him from being such, if for no other reason. Mr. Rohrs is one of the best business farmers in the county, as he is one of the basest of men, and is fully capable of holding any position the people might call him to occupy, but this continually having him up for office is not doing him justice and is certainly a mistake in these would-be friends to thus bring his name forward. Chronic office seekers are an abomination in the eyes of the people, and the friends of Henry Rohrs know him to be too good a man to be so classed. He is a hustler, a good Democrat, but is not a candidate for office at this time.

Must "Season" Awhile.

An old Henry county farmer, who is a Democrat, caught onto the Northwest the other day, and backing him into the corner drug store, said:
"One of my Republican neighbors had a dream the other night."
"Yes, well—"
"He dreamed he died and on the other shore came to a fork in the road. A sentinel in uniform stood there and challenged his politics.
"I'm a Republican and voted for protection last fall," answered my neighbor. "Turn to the left," said the sentinel, "it's but a little way; you'll see the smoke soon."
"He went on and presently arrived at the iron works."

"I see. What next happened?"
"Well, my neighbor saw a fierce looking devil, roasting a sleek, cunning-looking chap and asked who he was. 'That,' said the demon as he piled on a fresh scotch of coal and brimstone, 'that is a p. s. i. e. t. i. f. i. c. a. t.
A little further on another devil, with his sleeves up and sweat pouring down his temples, was tacking up the brands around a fine fat fellow whose lar was running merrily down into the embers."
"And who is the fat fellow?" inquired my neighbor, in his dream."
"That," replied the devil, as he leaned his spade against a pile of coal and mopped his brow—"that is a protective monopolist." Further on still, in a corner not very hot, my neighbor saw a man hung up with a piece of binder twine."

"Indeed! that was singular."
"Yes, it struck my neighbor so, and he inquired of a devil what it meant."

"The devil who stood there, told my neighbor that the hoodoo, hung up with binder twine, was a Republican farmer, who voted for trusts and protection last fall. He was too green to burn yet, and it was concluded that he should be hung up, so he would be to hang him up and let him season awhile!"

The Old Pioneers to Meet in Napoleon.

The Maumee Valley Pioneer Association will hold its next meeting in Napoleon, on the 21st of the present month. Our citizens will give the pioneers a royal reception, and to take preliminary steps in entertaining the association a meeting of citizens was held at the office of the Probate Judge on Monday evening, when the following committees were selected:

EXECUTIVE.—C. E. Reynolds, D. M. Jones, J. V. Cuff, H. A. Meyerholz, Henry Rohrs, Jas. Donovan, C. H. Gidley.
RECEPTION.—J. H. Tyler, J. M. Haag, J. G.
Haley, J. P. Ragan, D. Meekison, D. Wilson.
FINANCE.—R. W. Cahill, O. E. Barnes, H.
C. Groeschner.

We hope the meeting will be largely attended and that all pioneers of this remarkable valley may have the pleasure of partaking of the hospitalities of the citizens of Napoleón.

Letter from Mr. J. Koller.

We are permitted to publish the following letter from Mr. Koller: HOTEL DE RUSSIE,
MADRID, Spain, July 22, 1889.
DEAR WIFE:—This is 7 o'clock Monday a.
m. I am writing you a little letter. We yesterday attended another ball fight, where were killed eighteen horses and six bulls.
About 8000 were present. I had a look through all the inside of the enclosure, including the private apartments of the King.
I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother
you with them. I saw a lot of things, but I don't want to bother you with them. I saw a
